ABOUT THE SHOWCASE

“An Adventure of a Lifetime” follows the journeys of two groups of kids and teens who both are on a mission to find the Eternal Cup, an ancient artifact that offers eternal life to any who finds it. One group is sent to a pyramid in Egypt to save their friend, as the other is on a field trip in El Yunque National Forest when they decide to look for the cup. The artifact can be in one of these two places filled with unique characters and obstacles, but the real question is: Which one? Along the way, they discover the meaning of friendship, individuality, and what the gift of “eternal life” truly is to each one of them.

“An Adventure of a Lifetime” sigue los caminos de dos grupos de niños y jóvenes que tienen la misión de encontrar la Copa Eterna, un antiguo artefacto que ofrece vida eterna a cualquiera que la encuentre. Un grupo es enviado a una pirámide en Egipto para salvar a su amiga, mientras que el otro está en una excursión al Bosque Nacional El Yunque cuando deciden buscar la copa. El artefacto puede estar en uno de estos dos lugares llenos de personajes y obstáculos únicos, pero la verdadera pregunta es: ¿Dónde está? En el camino, descubren el significado de la amistad, la individualidad y lo que realmente es la “vida eterna” para cada uno de ellos.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

Kevin Chacon started his artistic career with the acting school Rybin Studio of Drama in 2016, and is currently represented by its counterpart, Rybin Talent Management. The direction he has had along with his talent and dedication led him to book the leading role of Vido in Jessica Jones, where he acts alongside stars such as Krysten Ritter, J.R. Ramirez, Rachel Taylor and Carrie-Anne Moss. Soon after, he landed the lead role of "Santiago" in the Nickelodeon animated series, "Santiago of the Seas". Kevin is one of several Hispanic artists from the Tri-State area of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut developed by the actress, teacher, and artistic manager of children, Susan Rybin, who has more than 40+ years of experience in the entertainment industry. In one of the most recent productions of Rybin Studio of Drama, Kevin played the lead role in the bilingual adaptation of The Little Prince. More on-screen credits include film "Brownsville Bred", Nickelodeon promos for Double Dare and Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, and more. Kevin received the HOLA Award for Emerging Artist in 2018, and is an Imagen Award Nominee.

As a graduate of Rutgers University, with a degree in communication and theater, Nicolas is now part of the teaching staff of Rybin Studio of Drama, while he continues pursuing his career in acting .

SOPHIA ANGELICA
(Creative Director/Teacher)

With her debut album #Angelicas released on February 22nd, talented Argentinean singer-songwriter SOPHIA ANGELICA has created a fun, energy-infused, emotional roller coaster of an album that takes on heavy topics about heartbreak and self-esteem. At just 24, Sophia is a unique young artist who is not only an extremely talented singer, but also a gifted bilingual songwriter and storyteller capable of writing in English and Spanish. Having performed around the world and as a global activist, she works closely with the United Nations, and has traveled internationally to combat bullying and discrimination. She received the Hispanic Organization of Latin Actors "Breakthrough Artist Award," and the prestigious "Presidential Volunteer Service Award" in Washington, D.C. for her work with human rights. Having just returned from being invited by the Gates Foundation to perform in Thailand, Sophia continues to perform in well-known venues across the tri-state area, such as Birdland Jazz Club, Duffy Square - Times Square, The Stone Pony, Yankee Stadium and Meadowlands RaceTrack. Most recently, Sophia won a Marvin Hamlisch International Music Award under the category of Contemporary Pop, presented by the legendary Clive Davis. She also is currently a lead teacher of acting, voice, and songwriting at Rybin Studio of Drama and Wharton Institute for the Performing Arts.
